that didn't extend to the women.

she made no marked sign. Of course, she before. I had had her kept under super-

She was dressed in aneatly-fitting black unty jacket, a hat of modest shape, a

I finished my breakfast and went out into

BY ELIZABETH RAYMOND.

CHAPTER III. THE LADY DETECTIVE CONTINUES HER

STORY. "Jane! Jane! how could you do this;

what do you mean?" she cried. "I mean business," I answered. "I mean. Miss Amelia, to tell you a story.

I do not intend to point the moral." Stop, Jane, stop! you go too far. Your mother would be bitterly broken-hearted if she saw you in the place you now fill-a spy, a mouchard, a cheap detective, a thing -an office which makes men con temptible when they fill it, and if occupied by a woman-why, it makes every other infamy respectable which she can commit. And you, a nicely-bred girl, to mnsex yourself to become a detective-

"Pardon me, Mrs. Wright. Whatever you may say of my profession, you can't Bay, when you know the facts, anything about my kindness and good will for you. I told you that I had made you suffer one Indignity in order to save you from one worse. I want you to come with me now, In a carriage, home to your people. I know where your husband is, and I know, too, that you are here to get certain boxes to be left at the hotel to-morrow. In that your maid is his agent."

"Why, yes; that is so. How do you know it? But my maid is not-What do you mean? You talk like a detective in stories-that is to say, in riddles, whose meaning you do not know and can not

She arose and walked the room with a quick, sharp step, her face troubled and puzzled. Then, as she assed the electrical bell, she put her hand put and pressed the button before I could detain her. I heard the sharp, clear clang of the bell downstairs, and the night clerk's bell struck and his voice, "Front, number

9; wake up," and the shuffling of sleepy feet along the marble floor. "Well, Mrs. Wright," I said, "you seem determined to make a scandal. You forget I have a warrant for your arrest, and you are under arrest. The warrant is indorsed by the Superintendent of Police-see it! and every policeman is bound to aid its effective service. If you are inclined to be unreasonable, I will have you taken to headquarters in a patrol wagon: I prefer to take you in a carriage. You are charged with burglary in your father's house, from stepped forward and took the pitcher.

Thank you," she said; "that is what we

"Anything further?" said the bell-boy. "Nothing, thank you," she answered, smiling, and closed the door. Then she dropped on the floor, hid her face in the sofa support, so vain where he has no reason, oushions, and broke into a flood of tears. HISTORY OF MR. WRIGHT.

When I came into the case I naturally turned to the history of Mr. Wright. He had gambled, with the inevitable result, and finally lost all he had. Then came debts and troubles. To escape them he had gone abroad, and with the fatuous spirit of his class had visited Monte Carlo and Hamburg, where he had sacrificed his last credit at the tables. I suppose the Wrights had a hard time abroad, because my mother, who had kept up some gossiping relations with the servants of the Crawford family, told me that Amelia continually appealed to her father and mother for aid. Sometimes both father and mother agreed to respond-sometimes the father did it and sometimes the mother, but rarely if ever did the frequent requests of the except wait.

Aug. 28.—My agent's letter arrived.

Aug. 28.—My agent's letter arrived.

Told me that maid wa: a suspicious character, and had been in service of Prof.

Herrotry, the Egytologist, as Secretary, and had written for magazines certain articles in which she had attacked his conclusions upon the hieroglyphs on the Memphis stone, and said that the Professor had never gone farther towards Memphis credits in other places took the same af-

SPECIAL AGENCY

OF A LADY.

employed by him. That would be funny, wouldn't it? Here I have built up a business of several thousands a year profit, and he has only to raise his little finger in suggestion, and I will break my neck to find out what it means or to try to do what such a triffing notice implies. Maybe I am in love. Why, if being willing to wash his feet, to hold his head on my shoulder all night of the 18th were to be delivered at Continental Hotel still maintained its high reputation. On being told that it did, said, should there be an answer, it should be sent there. He then returned by way of Germantown Junction to New York, and went to a gambling house on 28th street, where he remained all night being shadowed by one of my operatives. I went myself to wash his feet, to hold his head on my shoulder all night of the 18th were to be delivered at Continental Hotel in morning, but I could not learn to whom they were to go or what they were. Distrusting the chances of recognizing Mrs. Wright land apprehending

"FREDRICK CRAWFORD WAS FOUND DEAD IN HIS DRESSING-ROOM."

At this moment the rattle of ice in a brush his coat than be fitted myself by pitcher was heard in the hall, and the bell-Redfern, and if he does not take his coffee boy knocked. I turned the key and threw and rolls, which I bring to his bedside open the door, standing behind it. Amelia every morning, my sorrow is as profound as it could be over the death of any other person in this world. Of course, I love Charlie. He is such a dear, lovable old absurdity-so strong where he is weak, so wise where he is foolish, so certain where he is wrong, so resolute where he has no so proud of trifles, so good to me, that when he puts his big arms over my shoulders and kisses my hair and calls me "little one," my heart just goes nowhere, and I am happy. These fancies of mine led to my troubles in the Crawford case. I took Mrs. Wright in a carriage to her home in Overbrook. I took her as a prisoner, and at my own risk. I gave her to her father's charge; I showed him the warrant, and asked him if he would take care of his daughter. I can see his face and hear his voice as he

"Why, yes; this is my child," and he folded his arms about her and his gray beard fell over her face.

I turned down the walk to the gate where the cab waited for me, and drove home. But before I laid down I wrote the precis now only remains to seize the property and return it to its owner. That I shall do in Early the next morning I came to the notel, and calling Charlie from his desk I told him what I was doing and why, and he readily agreed to report to me the arrival of the parcels containing the spoils of the robbery. Then I went to breakfast in the big dining-room. Did you ever dine in one of those old rooms which Paran Stevens designed? There are only a few, one in the Fifth Avenue, another in the Battle House, Mobile, and the best of them in the Continental. It is one of those architectural monstrosities which have a given length divided by two for its width and the width divided by two for its hight, as regular and angular as a daughter fail of a favorable reply until there was practically no resource.

Aug. 21.—Called in Crawford robbery turned to look for Mr. Wright. His condition was so desperate in Europe—his drafts were held, fought over, and paid when a little letter came to father and mother; his credits in other places took the same afof the case he got into it—hence I studied the angles of the great breakfast room and regarded with curious interest the hungry Rentucky, G.A.R., and is in the revenue commercial travelers. commercial travelers. They ordered, or at least one at my table did, canteloupe, Mr. Robert, or Mr. Wright, and he paid habells, or off not, and he smiled and held had swing face against the world, and women after the control of the study of the question as woman rate on the control of the study of the question as woman rated that the professor does not know what they are. Bringing to the study of the question a woman's observation, as I have done, I do not know anything about it. Earn and women are the unsolvable problems of life. Even detective a do not know what they are. Bringing to the study of the question a woman's observation, as I have done, I do not know anything about it. I can not say in many that men will do but I can not say in many detective should be to understand things like these, to wolf impulses, and understand things woman is a good woman for this reason or season of the study of the control of the control of the study of the control of the contr porridge, fish, steak, chops, cutlets, Spring chicken, tomatoes, potatoes, hashed turkey, whence you took the articles named in this schedule. It's a matter of 10 years' imprisonment."

I would rather hear him snore than to listen to Damrosch's orchestra, because it his upon her handwriting as a certain way of identifying her. Then I took out a warrant and made the arrest at the hotel. It is not not not that she might be effectively disguised, I his upon her handwriting as a certain way of identifying her. Then I took out a warrant and made the arrest at the hotel. It

CHAPTER IV.

LADY DETECTIVE RETURNS TO THE HOTEL.

Early the next morning I came to the tional Association of Letter Carriers.

M. W. Bickford, 10th Me., Mallen,
Mass. Comrade Bickford is a watchman. Mass. Comrade Bickford is a watchman S. M. Decker and wife, Lawrence, Mass Comrade Decker was a boy in the 13th Vt., Stannard's Brigade, when it made its famous flank attack on Pickett's Divisio at Gettysburg. He has been a grocer in Lawrence for 32 years.

Peter Berg, Co. A, 2d battalion, 16th U. S., Cincinnati, O. Comrade Berg is a Lieutenant of Police in Cincinnati. He found here an old comrade of his, Leonard

VETERANS IN THE CITY.

Cook, who has been for many years one of the Capitol employes.

H. F. Hillebrandt, Co. K. 55th Pa., Osborne, Kan. Comrade Hillebrandt is a lawyer and abstracter, and Judge-Advocate of the Department of Kansas, G.A.R.

split pair of dice laid together. But the old rooms like that have a commercial value distinct and definite. They range up the guest in straight lines with himself and start him after breakfast with good square corners in his mind touching the day's business.

I had dressed myself with some care that

Phil W. Hager, U. S. gunboat Conestoga, Louisville, Ky. Comrade Hager is Past Commander and present Adjutant of Wal-ter C. Whitaker Post, of Louisville, and a

29 or 30, her face oval, her eyes large and and Bibbs. He is now a practicing physi-

is a retired farmer

that didn't extend to the women.

That she knew mo I saw at once, although she made no marked sign. Of course, she

M. E. Beard, 1st N. H. H. A., Manchesa suggestion of telerance for the men in it ter, N. H.

A. G. Barnes, Co. A. 16th Vt., and R.
Pratt, Co. F, 12th Vt., Randolph, Vt.
They were accompanied by Mesdames
Pratt, Foster, and Howard, all of Ranhad listened to the conversation of the night

S. M. Tyrrel, Co. G. 5th N. H., 255 Thir ty-first street, Chicago, Ill. Comrade Tyr-rell is a manufacturer of choice cigars. P. H. Coney, Co. H. 111th N. Y. and 4th N. H. H. A., Topeka, Kan. Comrade

Coney is an attorney.

B. F. Smith, Co. F. 57th P. L., and Co. M., 2d U. S. Cav., Meadville, Pa., Comrade
Smith lost his right arm at Trevilyan Sta-James Hitchcock, 6th Ind. Cav., Mt. Vernon, Ill. Comrade Hitchcock is a photographer.

| Periods. | 1862. | 1863. | 1864. | 1865. | 1865. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1866. | 1 39.4 44.9 48.3 "Madam me not at all, but answer my question," she answered, and her brown Average eyes took on a glint of steel which awakened of year . . 88.3 68.9 49.2 63.6

all my antagonism, and for once in my pro- 2. VALUE IN GREENBACKS OF $100 IN Periods. 1862. 1863. 1864. 1865. | Section | Sect 142.1 143.5 143.9 to treat you with any kind of consideration such as I have extended to her."

"Why, you are a very amusing person," she said laughing, "and when shall I be been shall be honored by being your prisoner, and for Average of year.. 113.3 145.2 203.3 157.3 —EDITOR NATIONAL TRIBUNE.]

The survivors of the Army of the Shenan-doah met for the first time since the war at The survivors of the first time since the war at doah met for the first time since the war at lines: "Frederick Crawford was found dead in his dressing-room; this forenoon at Overbrook." He had committed suicide or had been murdered, the local police are unable to say which. He was a highly respected citizen of old, family and liberal fortune, the robbery of whose art treasures a few weeks ago was the sensation of the hour."

If I

The survivors of the first time since the war at doah met for the first time since the war at silver service—teapot, sugar bowl, spoonholder, and cream pitcher, for which accept my thanks. You ought to have seen the joyful look on my wife's face when to opened them out to her view. She up and clapped her hands, and excalimed: "Ohld the engagements, greater and minor, of the rebellion, with their dates.

Survivors of the first time since the war at silver service—teapot, sugar bowl, spoonholder, and cream pitcher, for which accept my thanks. You ought to have seen the joyful look on my wife's face when to opened them out to her view. She up and clapped her hands, and exclaimed: "Ohld the engagements, greater and minor, of the rebellion, with their dates.

Survivors of the lifts U. S.

All survivors of the lifts U. S. are urgently requested to send their names and addresses to Comrade Peter Berg, Co. A. 2d.

—LAURENCE DAVENPORT, 81st Pa., Fort Smith, Ark.

The Army of the Sixty Eught and Cream pitcher, for which accept my thanks. You ought to have seen the joyful look on my wife's face when to opened them out to her view. She up and clapped her hands, and exclaimed: "This is a most excellent compendium of all the engagements, greater and minor, of the rebellion, with their dates.

Survivors of the leth U. S. All survivors of the leth

A HERO AND HIS HATCHET.

violet in color, possibly brown, her teeth dazzlingly white, bergmouth straight-cut and strong, her magnet just a little swaggering, as who should say, I know my gait and place and don't you forget it," and a general air of contempt for ithe world, with perhaps are of contempt for ithe world, with perhaps is a retired farmer.

A HERO AND HIS HATCHET.

A HERO AND HIS HATCHET.

A HERO AND HIS HATCHET.

The Monument Committee of the 13th Vt. has had a lively issue with the Commissioners of the National Cemetery at 4th Vt. Harwood, N. D. Comrade Newton is a retired farmer. Gettysburg over a simple camp hatchet. The Vermont veterans were determined that a hatchet should be held in the right hand of Capt. Stephen F. Brown, whose statue surmounts the new monument which is to mark the spot occupied by the 13th on the battlefield, and the Cemetery Commissioners were so averse to the idea that J. H. Walling, of the Park Row Building, the builder of the monument, has been kept in hot water for six months. The contention resulted in a compromise. The hatchet is a part of the statue, but it rests on the ground near the Cartains risks for the ground near the Cartains risks.

went a forced march of six days, in order to rejoin its brigade, from which it had been detached. Upon its arrival on the field—which was an armed guard.

"You can't get water here," said the guard. "Gainst orders."

"Damn your orders." said Capt. Brown, and then, with all the canteens of the men, and with only one man to help him, he thrust the guard aside and filled the canteens was the various amounts of premium on deprived of his swort.

would look me up at the proper time and with the news I had told him to convey, but he wasn't anywhere about, and I strayed into the parlor and sat down there to think out the situation. It was all clear enough, the strayed was the various amounts of premium on $1 in gold to $1 in paper during the war of out the situation. It was all clear enough, the wasn't had helped him, the gambling maid had advised and directed the whole affair, and was to be the agent in the sale of the stolen goods. I had my hand on the property, and could if necessary take the other offenders or let them escape as the conditions might require, and altogether I said to myself, summing up, "Jane, you have done very well," when the swish of skirts near me aroused my attention as the gambling of $100 in gold. The tables below the greenback was to be the swish of skirts near me aroused my attention as the gambling aroused the minute of $100 in gold. The tables below the greenback way to the firing line, rushed into the front, and he was they arouse did that premium on $1 in gold to $1 in paper during the war of the first arrest followed, and he was the saw of the sword.

The history-making battle began with teens. His arrest followed, and he was the saw of the my are prisoner. He begged for magazine devoted exclusively to poultry and permission to rejoin his company, and was allowed to go. His men were far away to the first place of the front, and he had no weapons. He permission to rejoin his company, and was allowed to go. His men were far away to the first place of the front, and he had no weapons. He permission to rejoin his company, and was allowed to go. His men were far away to the front, and he had no weapons. He powed to go. His men were far of survivors of the 7th Pa. Cav., letters have been received from the following, whose names did not appear in the original

Albert T. Jones, Co. A, Hazelton, Pa Albert T. Jones, Co. A, Hazelton, Pa. Comrade Jones was enrolled in 1864.
Seely J. Farr, Corporal, Co. B, Breesport, N. Y. Comrade Farr enlisted Sept. 19, 1861, for three years.
Ellis Shaner, Co. D, Andale, Kan. Comrade Shaner enlisted Feb. 17, 1864, when, 15 years and 17 days old.
Josiah S. Dick, Co. M, Canby, Ore.
Ashforby H. Wintermute, Co. C, Hammond, La.

Ashforby H. Wintermute, Co. C, Railmond, La.
J. W. Rowland, Co. I, Lewisville, Wash.
J. D. Flick, Co. D, Vancouver, Wash.
George Seesholz, Co.I, 312 South Twelfth street, Saginaw, Mich.
John H. Salsman, Co. K, Norwich,
N. Y. Comrade Salsman eplisted in March, 1863.
Samuel Dickson, Co. G, Ashland, Del.

Jarch, 1863.

Samuel Dickson, Co. G. Ashland. Del.
Eben Dickson, Co. G. Ottumwa. Jowa.
John Dunlap, Co. G. Coatesville, Pa.
Evan Dunlap, Co. G. Soldiers' Home,

T. C. Kinsy, Co. G. Soldiers' Home, Va.

EDITOR NATIONAL TRIBUNE: I re-

To every one who sends $1 for a year's subscription to THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE, between now and Sept. 30, we will send THE FEATHER for one year FREE.

on the ground near the Captain's right of all the poultry journals. By this ar-Just before the battle the 13th Vt. under- rangement we can give THE FEATHER for a whole year to every one of our subscribers who renews and to each one who detached. Upon its arrival on the field—hot, blown, and fiendishly thirsty—Capt. Brown's command came up to a well, at which was an armed guard.

"You can't get water here," said the guard. "Gainst orders." said Capt. Brown, "Damn your orders," said Capt. Brown, orders are constituted as a new subscriber who asks for it when he sends in his dollar, provided, of course, he chooses no other book or publication. Remember, this splendid illustrated Monthly without extra cost!

We do not furnish The Feather at any orders in connection with a subscripe.

tion, either new or a renewal.

THE FEATHER is edited by George E. Howard, the well-known expert. PLEASE NOTICE: No free books go with this offer. It is impossible to give more than The Feather free. Ask for it WHEN you subscribe.

THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE, Washington, D. C.

RECENT LITERATURE.

LITTLE JOURNEYS TO THE HOMES

of Eminent Painters Ary Scheffer.
By Elbert Hubbard. Published by Putnam Bros., New York.
Ex-Senator John J. Ingalls has written for The Saturday Evening Post, of Phila delphia, two valuable papers upon the later career of President Garfield. These articles, written by a man who knew Mr. Gar-field in his youth, and afterward saw at close range his public acts, constitute what is perhaps the most dispassionate and judicial estimate of the man ever made.

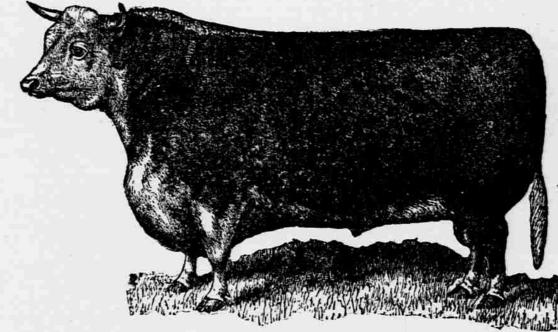

BATTLES, ACTIONS, AND SKIR-MISHES OF THE CIVIL WAR. By MISHES OF THE CIVIL WAR. By Theo. D. Strickler, Philadelphia, Pa. Published by the author. This is a most excellent compendium

MANNING'S BOOK.

NEW EDITION.

"Madam," I said, "you asked me upon what grounds I should arrest you. I will tell you in distinct terms. For complicity Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Poultry, Bees, Dogs, Pigeons and Pets.

PROFUSELY ILLUSTRATED.

Giving all the facts concerning the Various Breeds and Their Characteristics, Breaking, Training, Sheltering, Buying, Selling, Profitable Use, and General Care, and all the Diseases to which They are Subject-the Causes, How to Know, and What to Do in Sickness.

PREPARED, AFTER A RIPE EXPERIENCE OF TWENTY-FIVE YEARS,

By J. RUSSELL MANNING, M. D., V. S.

TO WHICH HAS BEEN ADDED

ALSO A COMPLETE HISTORY OF BEES.

Giving the Latest and Most Approved Methods and System of Bee Culture. By D. A. JONES, OF BEETON, ONTARIO

ALSO A VALUABLE TREATISE ON DOGS,

Containing Their History, Breeds, Training, Diseases, and Especially Giving a Sure Preventive of Hydrophobia.

ALSO A COMPLETE TREATISE UPON RAISING PIGEONS.

With a History and Description of Each Variety, as well as a Chapter on Canaries and Other Pets. By GEORGE E. HOWARD, A PRACTICAL EXPERT

ALL IN ONE LARGE VOLUME, 576 PAGES.

This great book, with additional matter and new illustrations, 576 pages, will be sent, postpaid, to any address with THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE one year for $1.25. A one-dollar bill and 25 cents in postage stamps will do. There is almost no risk in sending money through the mails in any shape. Not one dollar in a million is lost. We give no other free premium with this offer. The Manning book alone, without the new matter and illustrations, cost $2.50 originally. It is a great opportunity. Take it, and you will not regret it. Send us $1.25 for both book and paper one year.

THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE, Washington, D. C.